

Audition Call for The Box Show and Crawls, Flies & Squirms

When: Friday, January 31st, 10am - 12pm AND Saturday, February 1st, 6 - 8pm

Where: CCT Studios, Studio 2 at 177 E Naghten St Columbus, OH 43215

What to Prepare: Our Theatre for the Very Young (TVY) productions are a different model than traditional plays and musicals. These performances are entirely nonverbal, and will involve communicating through vocalizations and pantomimes. Please come prepared for movement, improv, and games with your audition group.

What to Bring: A copy of your headshot and resume, as well as a list of any conflicts you may have for the rehearsal and performance dates. The performance dates for each show can be found below. While a rehearsal calendar is not finalized, please anticipate that any conflicts before the show opens are important for us to be aware of.

Position Requirements: Theatre for the Very Young is a form of performance holds at its core that young children are human beings and not “human becomings”. They have their own social, physical, and emotional needs that should be addressed in creative and captivating ways. CCT strives to create a whole experience for children and their caregivers through creative play.

We are seeking paid performers for both The Box Show and Crawls, Flies & Squirms who have experience working with children ages 6 and under in theatrical, educational, and/or caregiving situations, experience with movement-based theatre, and a desire to be part of an immersive and playful world for all who enter the performance space! Those with puppetry and musical skills (including music composition) are encouraged to apply, but these are not necessary qualifications. Performances will be held at CCT Studios (117 E Naghten St) and rehearsals for both will begin in February.

In her family's new home, a young girl is surrounded by boxes containing all of her belongings. She searches for her favorite toy, but instead finds an imaginary friend! This new friend shows her how to turn ordinary into extraordinary. Backed with whimsical music and magical sound effects, this Theatre for the Very Young (TVY) show follows the story of two friends who transform the piles of boxes into an adventure-filled playground!

Crawls, Flies & Squirms

This production does not have a set script, and will instead be developed by the company during the rehearsal process

Come celebrate the first warm day of spring with CCT for this TVY premiere. We all have different feelings and reactions to bugs and insects. This frolicking tale of wonder introduces the audience to new friends and asks us to think about what it means to belong. Featuring our family of actors, soft puppets, and live music, all species eventually settle in for lunch and an afternoon nap. Movement, object transformation, and enchanting design will immerse our youngest audience members.
